The Surprise Recreation Campus Stadium ranks # 1 !

The Surprise Recreation Campus was again rated #1 by the Arizona Republic when compared and evaluated to the seven other Cactus League Spring Training facilities in the Metro Phoenix Area. Surprise Stadium ranked the highest with a FAN PLEASURE factor of 84.

Surprise ranked a perfect score of 10 on three of the categories including:

- Venue
- Parking and
- Player Accessibility.

Also ranking high on Surprise's pleasure factor scale was:

- Fan Enthusiasm
- Best Place to Catch a Ball
- Best Place to Catch the Rays.

Overall, Surprise Stadium averaged the highest score on the 10 categories rated, placing the Spring Training home of the Kansas City Royals and Texas Rangers, the number one spot to watch a Cactus League game.

The 2007 Cactus League season in Surprise was a success! Fans validated the AZ Republic rating with over 160,000 baseball fans attending games in Surprise during the 2007 season – a 15% increase compared to the 2006 season. Overall, over 750,000 baseball fans have attended a spring training game in Surprise since the inaugural season in 2003. . .

Old and new fans alike enjoyed their 2007 Spring Training Experiences in Surprise.

Bill Verant a Surprise resident and a (5) year season ticket holder hosted a group of neighbors to a game this year and commented, "Our visit to the ball park was a 15 on a scale of 10" and first year season ticket holders, Mike and Lynn Schafer of Peoria commented, "Thank you so much for making our 1st Spring Training as Arizona residents so memorable".

Again, the stadium experience was equally enhanced by the superb volunteer efforts of the Surprise Sundancers. Known to stadium visitors as the "AMBASSADORS OF SURPRISE", the Sundancers goodwill and service with a smile has cemented their reputation in the Cactus League as one of the premier volunteer organizations in the Cactus League. Randi Greensboro from Overland Park, Kansas commented, "The Sundancers are always so helpful and extremely friendly. I look forward to attending games in Surprise because this is such a beautiful stadium and the volunteers in their yellow shirts are always smiling!"
